FOR BETTER REVIEWS, PLEASE FOLLOW THESE GUIDELINES:

- Overall Judgment: We give books an initial screening but rely on you for an informed judgment. If you cannot recommend a book to readers, please notify us and return the book without writing a notice. Since we have space for only a sampling of the books we receive, we do not wish to devote space to an inferior book, except for a particular and cogent reason.

- Content: Describe the content of the work in brisk, summary fashion. Avoid excessive detail or a plodding chapter-by-chapter précis. Above all, evaluate the work critically, judging its strengths and weaknesses. At least 50% of the review should be devoted to evaluation; the ideal is to include most of the description within the evaluation.

- Tone: Our policy is to maintain a courteous tone, even when expressing differences of opinion or pointing out errors of fact.

- Format: Use 12-pt Times New Roman. Double-space all text. Indent the first line of every paragraph ½ inch. For emphasis, do not bold or underline text, but when you need to highlight text (e.g., for book titles cited within your text), use italics. After the initial mention of the author’s name, all subsequent mentions are to be by initial only, e.g., S. or S.’s.

- Heading: Give the following information, double-spaced, in this order and form: Title: Subtitle. Author. Editor. Translator. Series. Number of volumes. Edition. Place of publication: publisher, year. Number of pages. Price (cloth; paper). Use a sans serif font, 12 pt, such as Arial. Thus:

- Citations: If you cite directly from the book, indicate in parentheses the page(s) you cite. Use the bare number only, no “p.” or “pp.” Avoid using the vague “.” and “ff.” Do not separate and indent quotes.

- Length: If your review goes too far beyond the maximum length assigned (700-800 words), we will not be able to use it as is and it will be returned to you for shortening. But if you judge that a book sent for a full review can be sufficiently handled in a shorter notice (250–350 words), please inform us and write a shorter notice instead.

- Conclusion: At the end of the review, double-double-space and type your name, right justified; under your name type your institution and its location. Use a 12-pt sans serif font, such as Arial. If you are independent scholar simply list your city of residence.

- Deadline: Try to meet the deadline. If you need an extension, contact us as soon as you note the need. If you cannot complete the review within a reasonable time, please return the book to us.

- Sending your review: Please send your review by e-mail attachment to tsreviewseditor@gmail.com. We can handle most formats. Or simply paste your review into the body of an e-mail message. Please do not fax it. In all e-mail communications, in the subject window, please include the last name of the book’s author.

- Editing: Copy may be edited for length, clarity, style, and tone.

- Requests: We occasionally accept requests to review forthcoming books. If you request a book for review, please supply complete bibliographical data.
